WESTBOROUGH — Attorney Allyson Hope Cohen, WTAG’s host of “Legal Ease and Legal Analyst” on the Jim Polito Show hosted her first Lady Law workshop at the Westborough Doubletree Hotel on April 30.

Lady Law reviewed healthcare roxy and a durable power of attorney planning documents. Participants also learned how to advocate for hospital inpatient status versus observation status, quickly and effectively fight a Medicare denial and to evaluate significant aspects of long term care insurance.

This was the first in a series of workshops from Lady Law. The second workshop, focusing on special needs planning, is scheduled for Sept. 10.

Based on her experiences as an attorney, Hope Cohen has made it her mission to empower individuals with the legal knowledge they need to advocate for themselves and their loved ones. She created Lady Law to bring her message to a broader audience.
